Re Phoenix teletype to Seattle and Los Angeles
dated 3/24/72.

RE: [redacted]

On 3/27/72, [redacted] was interviewed at his place of employment, Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), 3200 Airport Avenue, Santa Monica, California. He advised he was employed as [redacted] for FAA at instant address on the entire day of 11/24/71.

b6
b7C

On the same date, [redacted] FAA, Santa Monica, made available time and attendance records which indicate [redacted] was in attendance at [redacted] in Santa Monica from 8:15 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., on the date of 11/24/71, and was given credit for nine hours of work that day.

Re Los Angeles letter to Seattle, 3/20/72.

Re Suspect [redacted]

Referenced Los Angeles letter indicates that a previous letter was written by this unknown individual on 2/24/72 with identification of a U.S. $1 bill, Serial Number [redacted]. For the information of Seattle and Los Angeles, this letter was received by San Francisco and the unknown letter writer described the look alike of D. B. COOPER as living at [redacted] in San Francisco and being about 45 years of age, 160 lbs., 5'7", of [redacted]

b6
b7C

From this description, [redacted] was located and interviewed on 3/2/72 at [redacted]

[redacted] San Francisco, and was eliminated as a suspect since he is 5'6", 155 lbs., and was almost completely bald with a few wisps of blond hair.

Although he did not recall his whereabouts on 11/24/71, his description does not in anyway match that of the hijacker of captioned plane. Unless advised to the contrary by Seattle, no further investigation concerning Suspect [redacted] is being conducted at San Francisco.

NORJAK
PERSONNEL NEEDS, SEATTLE DIVISION

At 10:22 a.m., 3/31/72, [redacted] Office at the Bureau, called and instructed that four Los Angeles Agents be selected to participate in a terrain search in connection with captioned matter. Agents are to report 6:00 p.m. Monday, 4/3/72, at the Longview Resident Agency.

b7C

[redacted] said Agents selected should be young, healthy and strong, capable of working under highly difficult circumstances. He said many Agents are being transported to the search scene by helicopter, after which they make the search and are later picked up by helicopter. No Agents selected should be on probation or other disciplinary action. It is anticipated these Agents will be needed two weeks.

b6
b7C

[redacted] instructed Seattle be contacted to determine the specifics as to clothing, etc.

b6
b7C

[redacted] also instructed an airtel be submitted to the Bureau and Seattle containing identities of Agents selected.

ADDENDUM:

ASAC [redacted]

3/31/72

ASAC PAUL R. BIBLER, Seattle, advised at 12:30 p.m., 3/31/72, that Agents are to report by 6:00 p.m. Monday, 4/3/72, at Vancouver, Washington and not the Longview Resident Agency as stated by [redacted]. He said personnel participating in the search will be staying at the Quay Inn, Vancouver, Washington. He said Agents should fly to Portland and that Vancouver is just across the river.

b7C

With respect to the Agents selected, he said they should be young and the "hiking type." All should bring gloves, waterproof-type shoes because of the rains and warm clothing. He said it would not be necessary to bring knapsacks or rain coats.
